Dear Moses,

Our new Growth Mat Changing Pad has created quite a stir in our Women & Infants Unit and that excitement is coming not only from the new mothers, but also from our maternity staff. Our nurses simply love giving gifts to their patients and they have told me that they really love the mat from Funtastic Media. Needless to say, the mothers also love the gift.

From a marketing perspective, I like the high quality of the mat. I also feel that it will have a long, usable life – something that many give-aways can not offer. I really like that how it turned out with a customized look that is uniquely ours.

I enjoyed working with you and your company and look forward to future collaborations between Funtastic Media and Maria Parham Medical Center.

Thanks,

David Ruggles
